THE SELLER RESERVES THE RIGHT TO REJECT ANY CONTRACTS UNDER THIS PLAN WHEN OUR INSPECTION OF THE EQUIPMENT DOES NOT WARRANT SELLER OFFERING THIS TYPE OF SERVICE.

Under this plan, if it is not a renewal of last year's contract, any parts found necessary to install during the inspection and the overhaul of the oil burner, prior to accepting this contract, the price thereof will be charged to and paid by the Purchaser, before this contract goes into effect.

This agreement does not cover service, labor, material or parts necessary for repairing chimney, furnace brick work, boiler control accessories, outdoor weather control panels, electronic controls and scanners, wall pump, fuel oil storage tank and piping, heating systems or any part or portion thereof, and is strictly confined to the service of OIL BURNER UNIT. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as imposing liability on the Seller for damages either direct or consequential resulting from defects in the heating plant, chimney or oil burner unit, or as a result of service rendered to such oil burner unit, the responsibility of the Seller being limited to the rendering of the service only to the oil burner unit as above set forth.

This contract does not include labor, material, or parts necessary to replace or overhaul any of the apparatus damaged by water, fire, negligent operation or other abnormal conditions.

It is mutually understood that this agreement shall automatically cease if anyone other than a service representative of the Seller shall make any adjustments or changes in the oil burner unit or its controls or if all the fuel oil purchases are not made from RONCO OIL & MECHANICAL.

Upon a happening of such event as herein mentioned, Seller shall retain monies paid on account of the contract as liquidated damages.

The Seller agrees to render the service specified in and during the period of this contract, but shall not be responsible for any loss or damage caused directly or indirectly by the failure of such service due to unavoidable delays, strikes, fire or other causes beyond its control.

IF THE PURCHASER DOES NOT RECEIVE AUTOMATIC DELIVERIES AND ALLOWS THE OIL TANK TO RUN DRY, THIS CONTRACT WILL NOT COVER REPAIRS NECESSARY TO RESTART (PRIME) THE OIL BURNER.
